

In the honour of my favourite movie, (i.e.) Twilight I would like to quote its famous one-liners:

- "And so, the lion fell in love with the lamb..."
- "Every second that I'm with you is about restraint...and you're too fragile."
- "You know, Jacob, if we weren't natural enemies, and you weren't trying to steal my reason for existing, I might actually like you."
- "You can't trust vampires... Trust me."
- "I leave you alone for two minutes and the wolves descend."
